GROVEWOOD GALLERY was opened in 1992 to revitalize the Homespun Shops that once housed the famous weaving and woodworking complex of Biltmore Industries. Located in a 1917 English-style cottage, the gallery exhibits traditional and contemporary crafts by more than 500 artists from around the United States. Over the years, Grovewood has earned the reputation of being one of the nation's top retailers of fine American craft.

GROVEWOOD GALLERY showcases 9,000 sq-ft of handmade crafts that appeal to the serious collector and the causal shopper alike. The gallery is noted for its impressive second floor studio furniture collection and "Asheville Style" collection of handcrafted furniture, lighting, and decorative accessories for the home.

We also present rotating solo and group exhibitions in our downstairs Spotlight Gallery, including special exhibitions of regional importance, turned and carved wood, jewelry, fiber art, paintings and more.

THE SCULPTURE GARDENS

Beginning the first Saturday in June and going through December, we host our annual Sculpture for the Garden exhibition. This outdoor sculpture invitational features contemporary sculptures by nationally-recognized artists, perfect for the home or corporate installations.

THE HOMESPUN MUSEUM

THE NORTH CAROLINA HOMESPUN MUSEUM presents a historical overview of Biltmore Industries and its internationally renowned wool cloth. Originally located in Biltmore Village, then relocated to North Asheville, this weaving industry had an important economic impact on the region from 1901 through the 1940's. Biltmore Homespun items were shipped all over the world.

The museum showcases memorabilia including letters, artifacts, woven samples and tailored suits. Photographs depict highlights from the active years of the industry, beginning with its origin as a craft education program founded by Edith Vanderbilt, its growth under the well-connected Fred Seely, and its revitalization by Asheville businessman Harry Blomberg.

Visitors can learn about the history of Biltmore Industries and occasionally observe a weaving demonstration on an antique 4-harness loom.

THE MUSEUM IS CLOSED DURING THE WINTER MONTHS OF JANUARY – MARCH

The cars have been preserved in their mostly original and running condition.
